

Florida Initiative for Suicide Prevention

FREE Trauma support group

Suffering from trauma is real, painful and it interrupts quality of life

Feeling the effects of the MSD tragedy?

Dealing with the loss of 2 Deerfield Beach youth from death by suicide?

The pandemic causing personal or family stress?

- These groups will be offered virtually. [This will be reconsidered once the community health concerns are alleviated].
- We will host groups specifically for adults and specifically for adolescents.
- Groups will be facilitated by trained professionals.
- Groups will be available to begin immediately.
- Groups will be facilitated in an open format; join as you become aware of the trauma you are experiencing.
- Groups are scheduled to be held for approximately one hour / every other week [flexible scheduling]
- Groups are tentatively scheduled for early evening hours.
